

SPECIAL ARMY BADGES

7

TRAINED SQUADRON SCOUT.—Fleur-de-lys
in gold.

Trained Squadron
Scout.

8

GOOD CONDUCT BADGE (white).—A chevron with point up on lower part of left arm.

Good Conduct Badge.

9

CANADA.—General Service Badge: Other
Canadian Badges are the "Moose-head" of the Canadian Mounted Rifles; the
"Black Devil" of the Winnipeg Rifles;
and the "Maple Leaf within the Garter"
of the Royal Montreal Regiment.

Canada: General Service.

10

SOUTH AFRICA.—General Service Badge.—
Other South African Badges are the "Bugle with the Crown" (South African Mounted Rifles); and the eight-pointed star of the South African Service Corps.

South Africa:
General Service.

11

NEW ZEALAND. General Service Badge.—
Other New Zealand Badges are the
"N.Z." within the Oak Leaves (also General Service); and the Apteryx of the 4th New Zealand Regiment.

New Zealand:
General Service.

12

AUSTRALIA.—General Service.

The NEWFOUNDLAND General Service Badge is a Moose Head with the word "Newfoundland" on a scroll.

G.M.P. (black letters on white brassard) with the red cap indicates "Guards Military Police."
Officers wearing a white band around the cap
are Cadet Officers.

Australia.
General Service.